

THE COUNTDOWN TO A LEGAL LYNCHING

Stop the execution of Stan Tookie Williams!

On October 11, 2005, the U.S. Supreme Court turned down California death row prisoner Stan Tookie Williams' final appeal, opening the way for the state of California to set an execution date of December 13. The judges and politicians have ignored the taint of racism at every step of the way in Stan's case. We, the undersigned, oppose this attempt at legal lynching, and call on the state of California to stop this execution.
